

Meet Super Tomato

One fearful night someone was smashing out all of the lights in Fruit and Veggie Town. It was Unsuper Ketchup. Unsuper Ketchup was made at a lab owned by Good Scientist. The scientist thought Unsuper Ketchup would be a good helper but he was wrong.... HE WAS EVIL! Good Scientist exclaimed "WHAT HAPPENED?" Suddenly Good scientist started to grow long shaggy hair. Out of him, Bad Scientist emerged!

On the other side of town, a tomato was chasing Unsuper Ketchup. Unsuper Ketchup ran up an erupting volcano! He got to the top and CRASH!! He splatted all over the place. The tomato thought he had won, but he hadn't. Then the tomato went home. He was deciding on a super name. All of a sudden it came to him... SUPER TOMATO!

Back by the volcano, slowly Unsuper Ketchup began to regenerate. He was back.

Meanwhile Bad Scientist had returned to his home and was working on a new potion to make an evil tomato. He was unaware of Unsuper Ketchup.

WOOSH.... CRASH.... Unsuper Ketchup found the tomato not realizing he was now SUPER TOMATO. He didn't know what to do.

Bad Scientist was making a special potion and finally found the right mixture. Evil tomato was being created. "MMUUAHHHAAAHHAA" he laughed in an evil tone. Then suddenly, CRASH! A big bottle of the very good/bad potion fell to the floor into pieces. Bad Scientist sprinted over, but it was too late. The potion was destroyed. He fell to the ground in tears. Suddenly a voice said "are you crying?" Bad Scientist was startled. He looked around and saw his creation was REAL! He leaped up and gave him a hug. When Super Tomato sees this, he will freak out.

Super Tomato was back at his house unaware of what was going on. Making himself some tomato soup. He enjoyed his soup and decided how he would make his cape. "What colour should I make my cape" he thought. "Green, red or a picture of a tomato?" He started to make the cape with the picture of the tomato because it just felt right. 8 hours later, Super Tomato was finished his cape. It fit perfectly. He looked like a super cool Super Tomato. He went out into Fruit and Veggie Town. Then he heard, "HELP!" Super tomato rushed over to a building to see Evil Tomato. "Who are you?" Evil tomato asked. "I am Super Tomato here to keep the town safe. Who are you?" He asked. " I am Evil Tomato trying to capture this cucumber." Super Tomato yelled "Let her go or I will take you to Jail." There was an altercation. Evil Tomato let go of the cucumber. Super Tomato had stopped him from taking Cucumber. Super Tomato sent a text to Good Scientist. "I need your help I have an evil tomato. Get your good zapper ready". Good Scientist got to work.

Unaware of all the events happening in Fruit and Veggie town, Unsuper Ketchup was making his own ketchup lab. He is planning to make an evil banana in his spooky basement. He needed to get rid of Super Tomato if he was going to be successful. Super tomato wasn't going to let that happen. Super tomato knew where Unsuper Ketchup wanted him to be. Super tomato went to the spot and waited for Unsuper Ketchup to show up. 30 minutes later he fell asleep. He woke up startled, chained to a bench. Unsuper Ketchup must have done this to him when he was asleep. Luckily in his cape, he had a secret pocket with a key. He got out and went to find him. Then out of nowhere he saw Unsuper Ketchup in a store. He was buying bananas. He was minding his own business until he saw Super Tomato. He grabbed his bananas and ran for his life.

Super Tomato found an unlocked window at Unsuper Ketchup's lab. He crept in. He saw Unsuper Ketchup trying to make his evil bananas. He snuck up behind him and handcuffed him. Unsuper Ketchup was so startled he couldn't believe it. Super Tomato took him to jail. Super Tomato has saved the day and Fruit and Veggie town will live in peace with no more evil veggies.
