

The Adventures of The Cat Gang

Chapter 1 Introduction

Hi. My name is Oli. I have two cats. I am their human so let me introduce them. Their names are Noodles and Dexter. Noodles is a little light brown tabby cat and is really weird. He is always plopping and rolling around the house and doing weird cat stuff. Dexter is a little black kitten and is a little bit shyer than Noodles. When we first got the kittens, they were really scared. However, they had plans for WORLD DOMINATION!

Chapter 2 The Great Escape.

I could tell that they were planning to escape. I could see them looking out the window trying to figure out how they will get out and maybe rule the earth. They're very clever and with their cuteness they're unstoppable. It's just a matter of time until... CRASH went the window. Glass flew everywhere!

'What was that?'

'I think it was the cats.' said my mom.

'See, I told you guys I knew the cats were planning to escape.

now let's go get them before they kill somebody!'

I ran out the door but all I saw was a blur of black and light brown.

Chapter 3 Day Two.

I woke up expecting some cute little paws to jump up on my bed. I got up to look for them and then I remembered they were gone. I was really sad that the cats were gone but even worse, I had to go to school. The walk there was miserable until I saw two cats run by. I ran as fast as I could and then they stopped because I was shaking a bag of treats. I started to load them in to my backpack BUT THEN THE DOGS CAME! I thought they would just hide but there was something special about these two cats. They just attacked the dogs with no fear whatsoever. Even more strange was that the two cats won! They were special. I looked at the cats, they looked at me then I grabbed them and shoved them in my backpack. I looked at my watch and noticed I was late for school and had no choice but to bring the cats.

Chapter 4 School.

I knew it was a bad idea to bring the cats, but I had no choice as I was so close to school and I was late. I ran as fast as I could as I heard the bell. As I got in, I heard a meow. The cats were hungry and needed food badly. I gave them my lunch which was a tuna sandwich. They were happy. I knew I had to get the cats out of the school but it would be hard. I remembered there's a big opening in the fence surrounding the school but I needed a friend's help. In class, I asked my friend if he would help and he said yes.

Okay, we have a team; what else?

Oh, I got it!

A plan, okay what will it be? All we have to do is get to the fence. Let's go!

'You ready?' I whispered.

'Ya!' Liam said.

'THEN LET'S GO!'

We snuck out of school and ran to the fence. A teacher was nearby but we did not care.

Chapter 5 Escape.

We didn't think that we would be chased, but they did! Liam and I ran through the hole in the fence and heard voices shouting. We quickly found a hiding spot in some bushes.

'Phew, that was a close one.' said Liam.

'I hope they don't come to find us.' I said.

I told Liam what the cats did to the dogs and he was surprised and impressed. Then he asked if we can go home.

Chapter 6 Trouble.

I looked at my watch and said, 'We can't go home because it's too early.'

'So, what will we do in the meantime?' asked Liam.

'Just hide and stay quiet and hope they don't find us.' I said.

'Okay.' said Liam.

Thirty minutes later, the bell finally rang. Liam said. 'We can go home now.'

'Quick, so the teachers don't see us! Run!' I yelled.

'Phew, that was close.' said Liam.

Ring! Ring! Ring! 'Hello?' said my mom as she picked up the phone.

'This is Belgo elementary calling.'

Uh-oh, we are in TROUBLE.
