

The way back home. Apa=Dad Anya=Mom

Chapter 1 "Vacation"

One day Apa went on vacation to Mexico with his awesome kids and his wife Anya. when they arrived at the airport they got attacked by some creepy teenagers, but Apa had a tranquilizer gun and he shot the teens with it. So the family went to there hotel and swam in the pool and ate tacos. Soon they went to bed and in the morning they swam in the ocean, came in and ate breakfast.

Chapter 2 "Lost"

Later, Anya said "hiking time!" the kids hated hiking so they complained. But when they did Anya said "stop complaining or you lose 2 weeks of fortnite and youtube and minecraft." so the kids stoped complaining. Then Noa (one of the kids) said "we can still play shellshockers." so anyway they drove to a mountain and hiked all day and got lost. It started to get dark and Apa said "Kids, we will have to stay here for the night." so they built a fort and went to bed.

Chapter 3 "lost part 2"

- In the morning Apa went searching for the city and saw a can of rootbeer and he ran to it. Then he fell into a pit and hurt himself. He saw something glowing and went for it. It was in a cave and he entered. He soon found the light which was a shine of light. He got out of the cave and looked around. There was no sign of the fort. He went in the direction that he remembered where the fort was. He walked for a while and he got tired and climbed a tree and slept there.

Chapter 4 “the friend”

When a woke up and he heard a noise. It sounded like a guinea pig. Apa looked around. He couldn't see anything till he looked at the ground and saw a really big guinea pig but it was actually a capybara. Apa's favorite animal is a capybara, so he went down the tree and patted it's head. “You are so cute,” Apa said “I wish I could keep you.” just then Apa realized that he was the parent, and he could keep the capybara. “ Hmm... You need a name... how about....Walter.” The capybara looked around. It apparently didn't care.

Chapter 5 “ Walter & Apa”

Walter and Apa searched for the fort for a long time. Then they saw a village. Apa ran to the village and said “ I have found civilization!” But then a monkey ran out of one of the house's and Apa said “ Have I found the monkey village?” Apparently he did and said “ This is very odd...” Then sixty two more came out of the house's and said “ HOO HOO BANANA!!!” Then the monkeys tried to bite apa. He had a can of monkeys off spray tho so that made it easier to stop the monkeys who tried to eat him. But then the boss of all monkeys came who was actually a gorilla that was called a monkey and it had an RPCL (rocket propelled candy launcher) so apa went for the candy and ran at the gorilla who had the candy, and ate the RPCL so the gorilla picked him up and threw him. Apa landed by these capybaras and Walter was there.

Chapter 6 “Poachers VS Apa”

Apa ran to the capybaras and hugged them when a bullet flew by his head and hit a nearby A@W (a&w is TM’ed BTW) so anyways the people inside ran out yelling “FIGHT FOR GREASE!!! FIGHT FOR BURGERS!!!” the people ran right past apa and the poachers and ran to a different A@W. Apa then saw the poachers and pulled out his tranquilizer gun and shot the guy. Unfortunately there where more 13 poachers and they ran at Apa but just then Apa heard a familiar crie “HOO HOO BANANA!!!” The monkeys exploded out of a bush and ran around throwing bananas and creating total chaos. Apa ran to a river but there was a crocodile that was there and it ran into the fight, and some tourists joined in too. The fight was going strong even after 4 hours. That is until sam the hippo bird came and ate every one. Nobody dies so they stoped fighting cuz’ they did not want sam to eat them again. Apa went searching again for his family but didn't find anyone except a war plane.
